17A PSALM 17:1–5

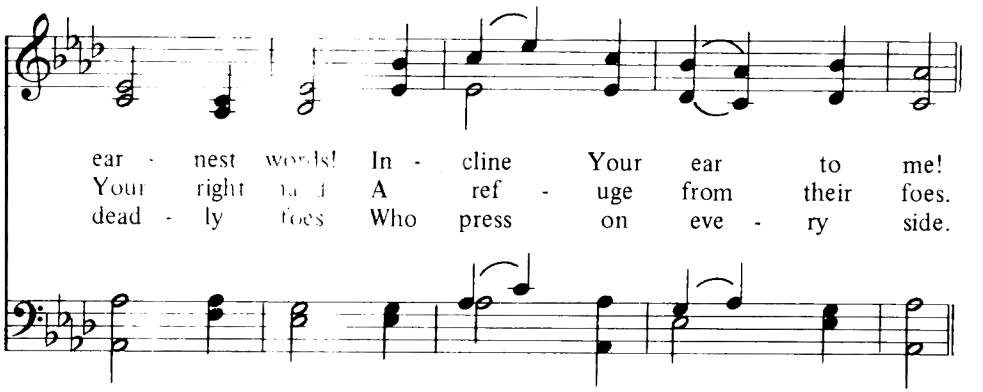

ST. ANDREW. C.M.

17B PSALM 17:6–12

BALERMA. C.M.

8. [10] They are enclosed in their own fat:
Their boasting words abound.
[11] They compass us and fix their eyes
To cast us to the ground.

9. [12] My enemy's a lion strong
That craves to tear his prey.
He's like a lion young that lurks
In ambush every day.
