38B PSALM 38:1–8

ST. SYLVESTER. 87.87.

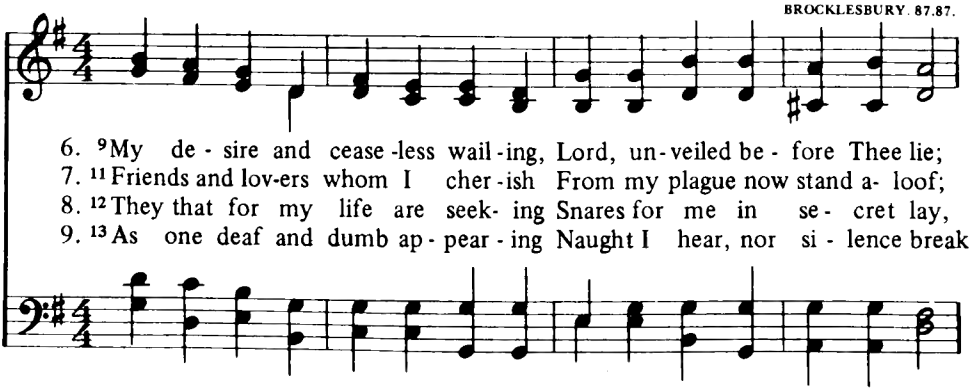

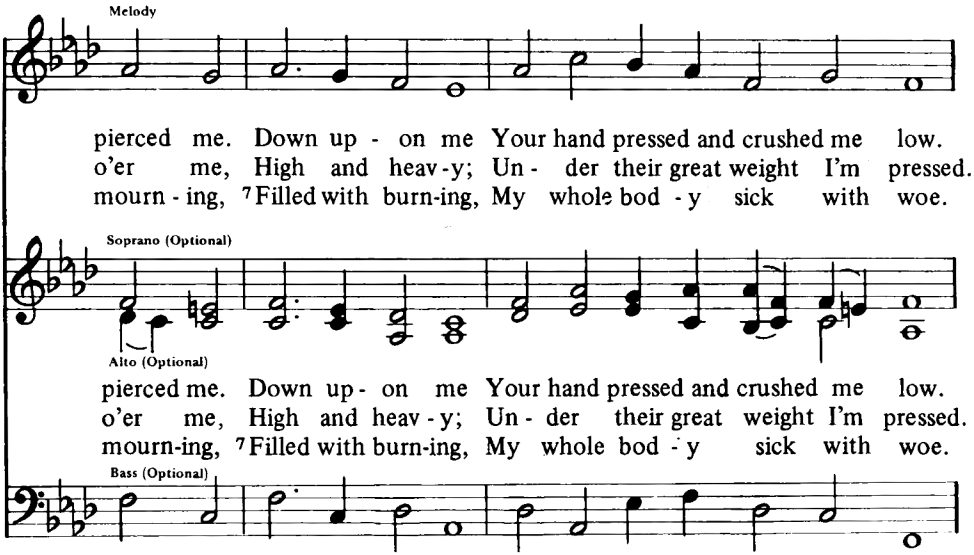

4. [5]Loathsome are my wounds neglected;
My own folly makes it so;
[6]Bowed with pain, with grief dejected,
All day long I mourning go.

5. [7]For my loins are filled with burning,
All my flesh with sore distress;
[8]Faint and bruised, I'm ever mourning
In my heart's disquietness.

38C PSALM 38:9–14

BROCKLESBURY. 87.87.

4. 8 I am bruised, benumbed, and dying,
Weak from sighing
At the murm'ring of my heart.
9 O Lord, You know all my longing,
All my sighing;
No groan kept from You apart.

5. 10 Fearful now my heart throbs wildly;
My strength leaves me;
All the light of my eyes fails.
11 Friends and loved ones act offended;
All my kindred
Stand off while my plague prevails.

6. 12 Foes are seeking to ensnare me;
They would kill me.
They plot treachery all day.
13 As though deaf, I do not listen.
I say nothing,
14 Never argue, silent stay.

7. 15 LORD, You are the One I wait for.
You will answer!
Lord, my God, my hope abide.
16 Keep them from rejoicing o'er me
Arrogantly;
Let none gloat when my feet slide.

8. 17 Always I'm about to stumble,
Grieving, humble.
18 I confess iniquity;
I distressed am for my error.
19 Foes have vigor;
Many hate me wrongfully.

9. 20 For my good they evil pay me,
Hostile toward me.
21 O forsake me not, O LORD!
O my God, be not far from me;
22 Haste to help me!
Be my sure salvation, Lord.
