INTRODUCTION

DESCRIPTION AND PURPOSE

As the title indicates, this volume contains English versions of the Psalms in musical settings designed for singing in public and private worship. Most of the versions are in rhymed meter in the tradition of the Genevan and Scottish Psalters of the early 1600's and of many later Psalmbooks. In an effort to capture further the meaning and force of the Hebrew poetry, some Psalms have been translated into unrhymed or irregular meters. The words from the Authorized Version of the Bible have been used for the chants and for a number of other musical settings.

TITLE

The collection of inspired songs in the Scriptures was designated by ancient Hebrew manuscripts as SEPHER TEHILLIM (Book of Praises). In quotations from Ephesians and Colossians on the title page of this volume, Paul described them as "psalms and hymns and songs of the Spirit," using terms from various headings and opening words found in the Greek version of the Scriptures which was familiar in his day. It seemed appropriate for this present publication, however, to use the title found in most English Bibles, the very words by which Jesus described the collection (Luke 24:42) when He said, "David himself says in the Book of Psalms."

IDENTIFICATION OF SELECTIONS

The 150 Psalms are clearly identified by the numbers used in the Hebrew Masoretic text, which has been followed by most English translations of Scripture. Divisions, alternate tunes, or different versions are indicated by a letter following this Psalm number, as 1A, 1B, or 119L, 119M, 119N.

VERSES AND STANZAS

Each selection is introduced by a title consisting of the Psalm number, followed by the verses which are included if the Psalm has been divided. The verses are further identified by small superscript numbers at the beginning of each. Stanzas are numbered according to the requirement of the music used, but from the beginning to the end of the Psalm, rather than within each selection. The worshipper is thus made aware of the continuity of each Psalm, even though he may be singing only a portion of it.

DIVISION OF PSALMS

Much effort has been devoted to insuring that every Psalm is available in divisions of singable length. With few exceptions, dividing has conformed to the strophes in the Hebrew text. Every Psalm is translated throughout in the same version, or in each of two versions, as in Psalm 18 A-F and G-L. The only exceptions to this rule are 68A, where only verses 1-6 of the Psalm are in five-line stanzas; 102B, in which verses 12-22 of the Psalm are in four-line stanzas; and 41C, 72D, 89I, and 106G, in which the final verse of the Psalm is presented in a unique musical setting.

MUSIC

The basis for choosing all of the music has been appropriateness for congregational singing without instrumental accompaniment. Most tunes are familiar, having strong melodies within average voice range, together with harmonizations that are interesting yet easily learned. Some alternate tunes, and some assigned to alternate versions, will require training and practice by leaders and singers alike. None, however, should be beyond the musical ability of those willing to prepare for singing praise to God. All have been selected with a view toward expressing the thought and mood of the words.

REFERENCE TO DEITY

To help the worshipper appreciate the names and titles of God inspired by the Holy Spirit in the Psalms, those preparing the versions for this volume have followed two rules: (1) use these names and titles whenever, but only when, they occur in the ancient texts; (2) distinguish consistently among them.

The Personal Name of God, spelled "JHWH" in English letters, occurs so frequently in the Psalms that a brief explanation is appropriate. For centuries before Christ, this Name was considered so sacred by the Hebrews that they would not pronounce it, and when reading or chanting they substituted the title ADONAI (Lord), which also occurs frequently in the Psalms. Most English translators have followed the ancient Greeks in using "Lord" to translate both the Name and the title of God but have usually distinguished between them by capitals, "LORD," for the Personal name and by conventional lettering, "Lord," for the title.

Here listed are three principal references to God in the order of the frequency with which they occur in the Psalms. Following each, also in the order of frequency, are the translations used in this volume:

JHWH: The LORD, LORD, Jehovah, GOD, THEE, HE, HIS.

ELOHIM: God.

ADONAI: The Lord, Lord, my Lord, Jehovah.

In a number of versions, "you" and its corresponding forms have replaced "thou" forms in addressing God and man, and in most others, "thou" forms (as in the Authorized Version) are used for both Deity and humanity. In a few versions the pattern has been that of several modern English translations of Scripture which address men as "you" and God as "Thou."

Care has been exercised in the capitalization of pronouns referring to any Person in the Trinity. Recognizing the Messianic nature of many Psalms has made it difficult to follow a consistent policy in such as 20, 21, 22, 45, and 72. In general, where reference can be to a man, even though as a king or a prophet or a priest he may be a type of Christ, capital letters have not been used.

Another policy concerns the capitalization of common nouns metaphorically describing God. Such words have been capitalized when used in direct address (as in 18G the first line of stanza one: "LORD, my Strength"), but not when used in simple metaphor (as in the second and following lines of the same stanza: "The LORD's my fort, my stronghold, etc.").

AUTHORIZATION

The preparation and publication of THE BOOK OF PSALMS FOR SINGING has been a project of the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America to encourage the use of Psalms in the praise of God by all those who would worship Him in Spirit and in truth.

Three of those appointed by the Synod in 1965 to investigate Psalter revision have served continuously since then in the planning and preparation of this edition: Charles McBurney, chairman; Mary E. Coleman, and Robert M. Copeland. Others who by Synod's appointment have contributed toward the completion of the project are Roy Blackwood, Cloyd E. Caskey, Clark Copeland, Mrs. Arvilla Copeland, Mrs. Louise Copeland, William Edgar, Mrs. Eleanor Hutcheson, Gertrude Lee, Mrs. Marian Martin, Robert McFarland, Ronald Nickerson, Edward Robson, John Schaefer, Kenneth G. Smith, Mrs. Elaine Tweed, G.I. Williamson, and Renwick Wright.

PSALM 1

ARLINGTON. C.M.

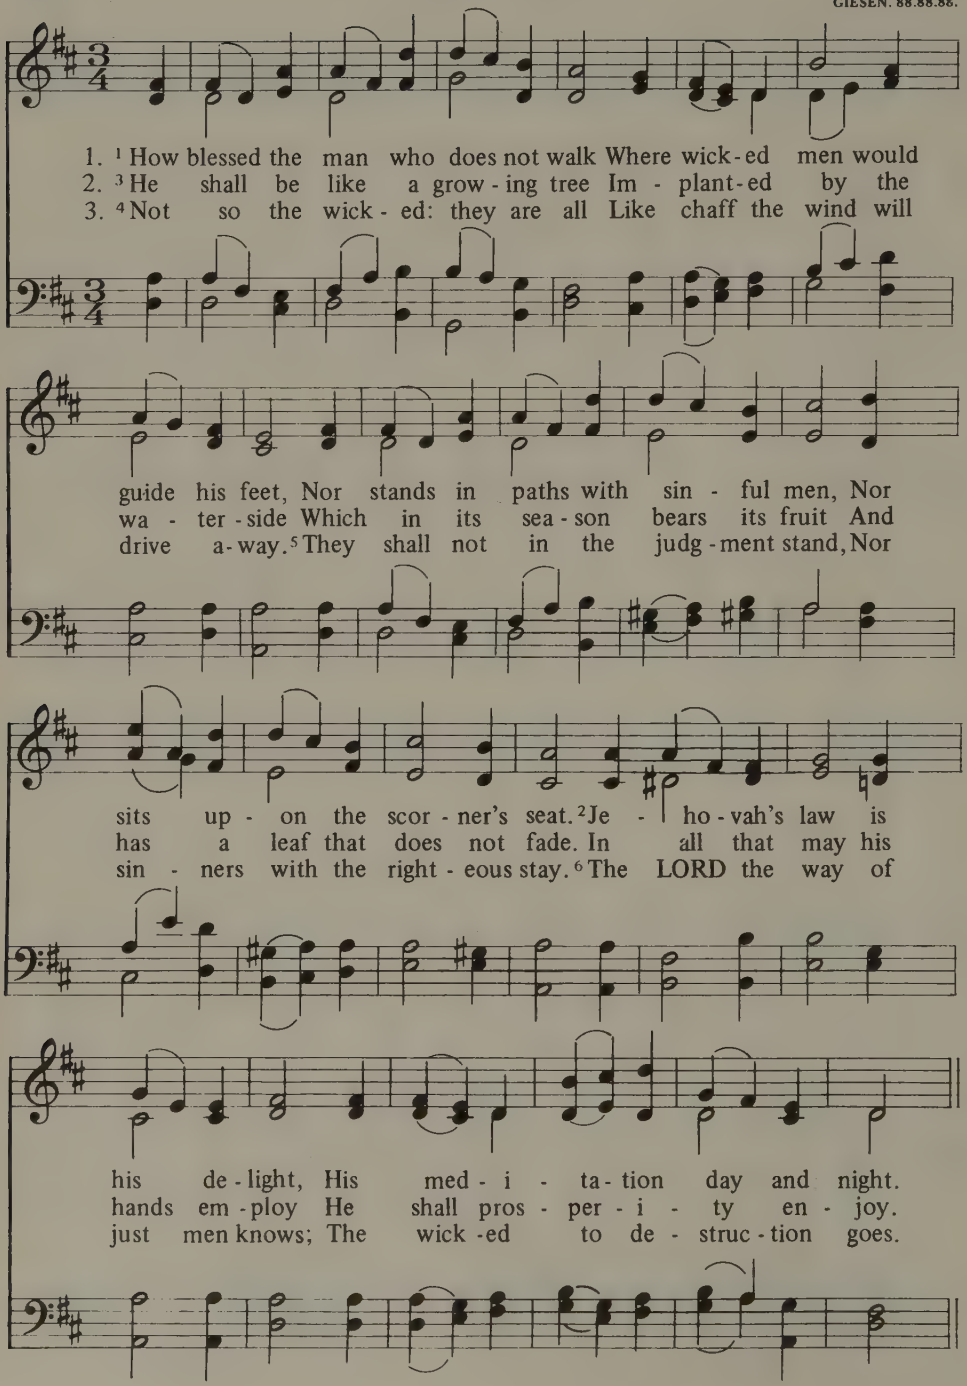

5. [5]In judgment therefore shall not stand
Such as ungodly are,
Nor in th' assembly of the just
Shall wicked men appear.

6. [6]Because the way of godly men
Is to Jehovah known;
Whereas the way of wicked men
Shall quite be overthrown.

3 PSALM 3

NEW BRITAIN. C.M.

4. [7] Arise, O LORD! Save me, my God!
You punish all my foes.
You smite the face of wicked men,
Their teeth break with your blows.

5. [8] Deliverance is from the LORD,
Salvation His alone!
O let Your blessing evermore
Be on Your people shown!

5. [5] Bring offerings of righteousness,
Your sacrifices just;
Seek ye the LORD with confidence,
And in Him put your trust.

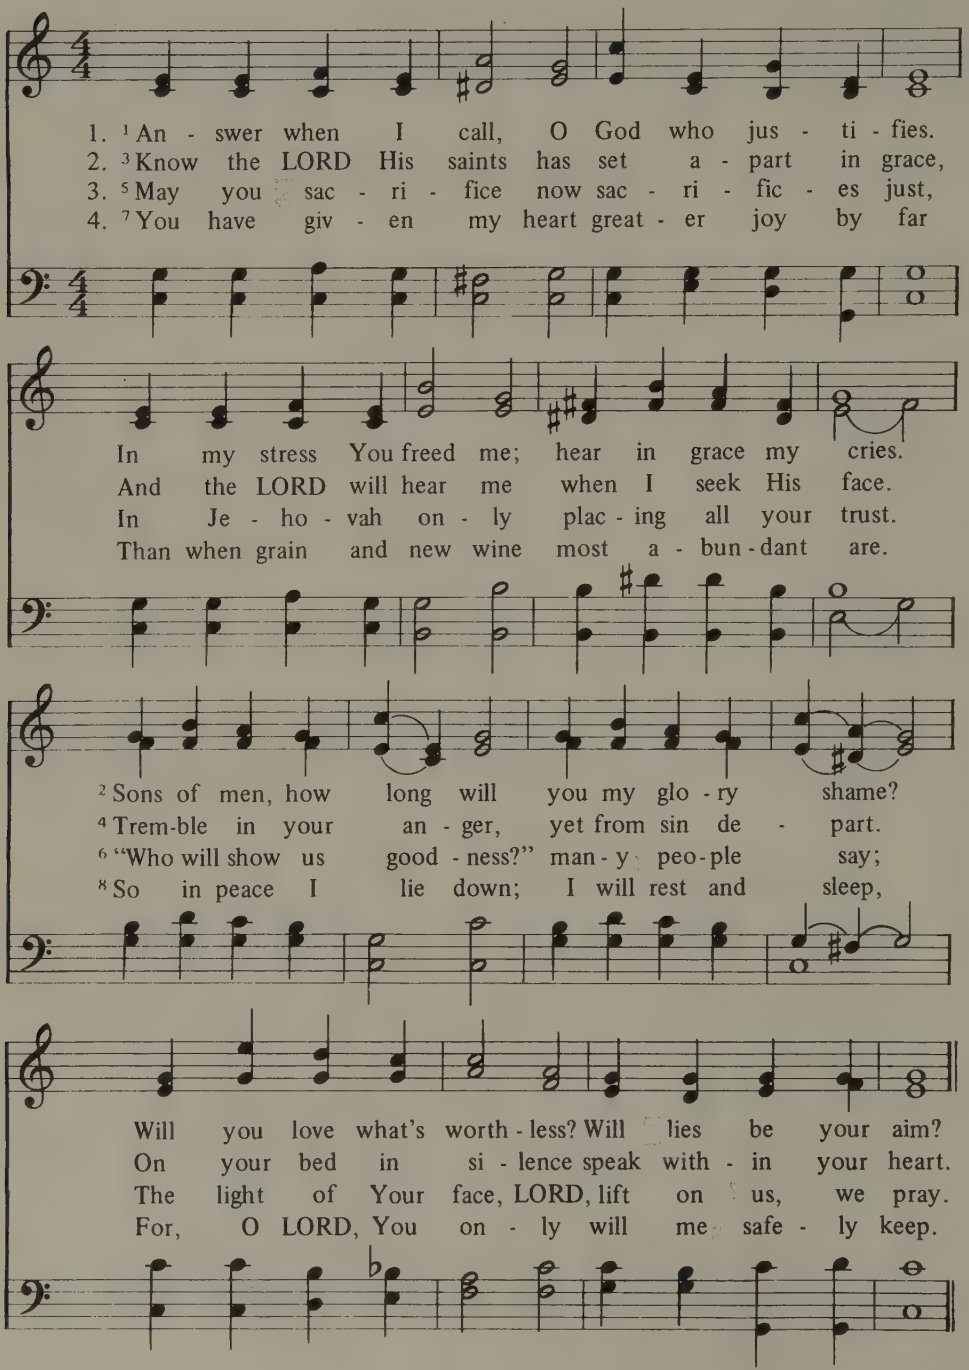

6. [6] "O who will show us any good?"
Is that which many say;
But of Thy countenance the light,
LORD, lift on us for aye.

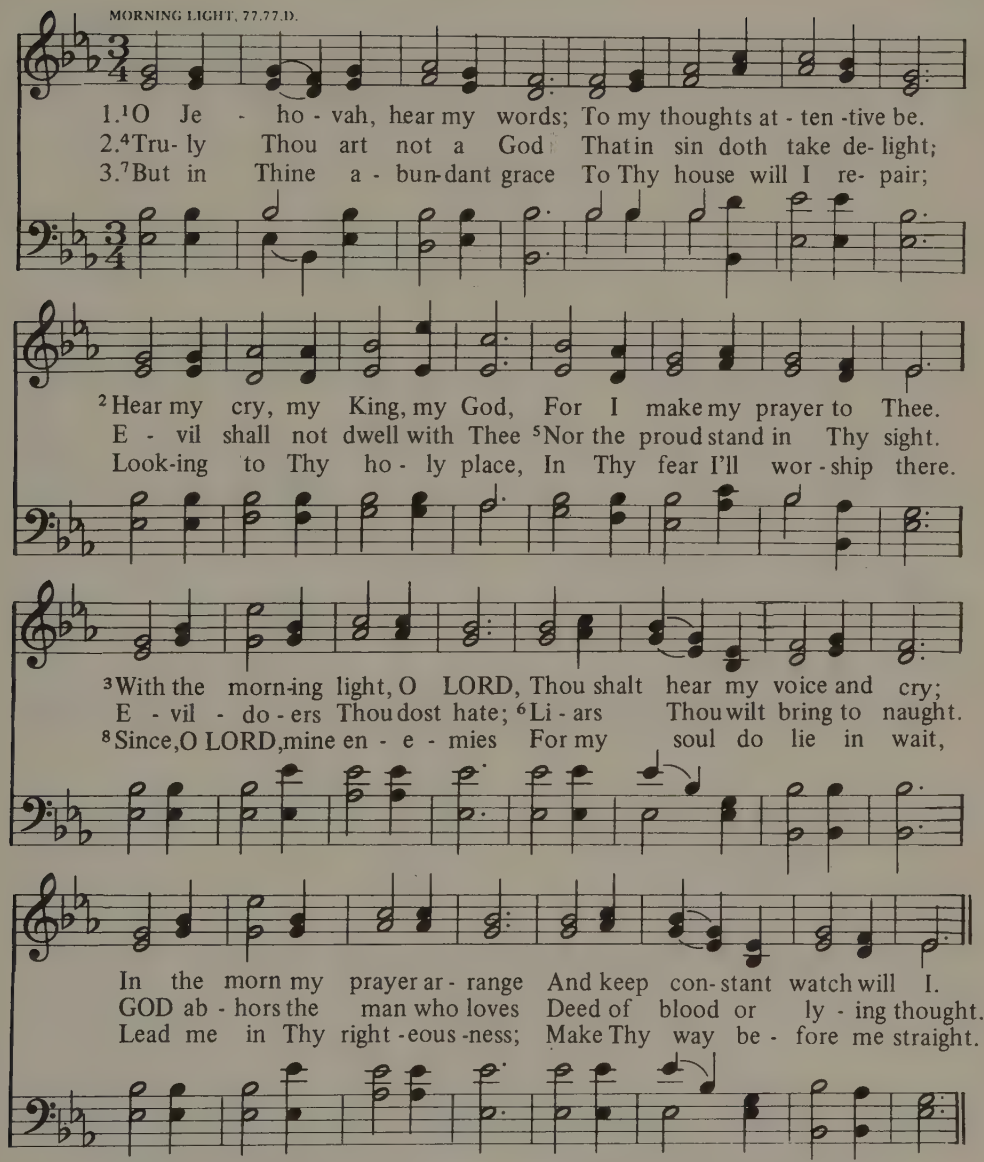

7. [7] Within my heart bestowed by Thee
More gladness I have found
Than they, ev'n then, when corn and wine
Did most with them abound.

8. [8] I will both lay me down in peace,
And quiet sleep will take
Because Thou only me to dwell
In safety, LORD, dost make.

4B PSALM 4

PENITENCE. 11.11.11.11. (Trochaic).

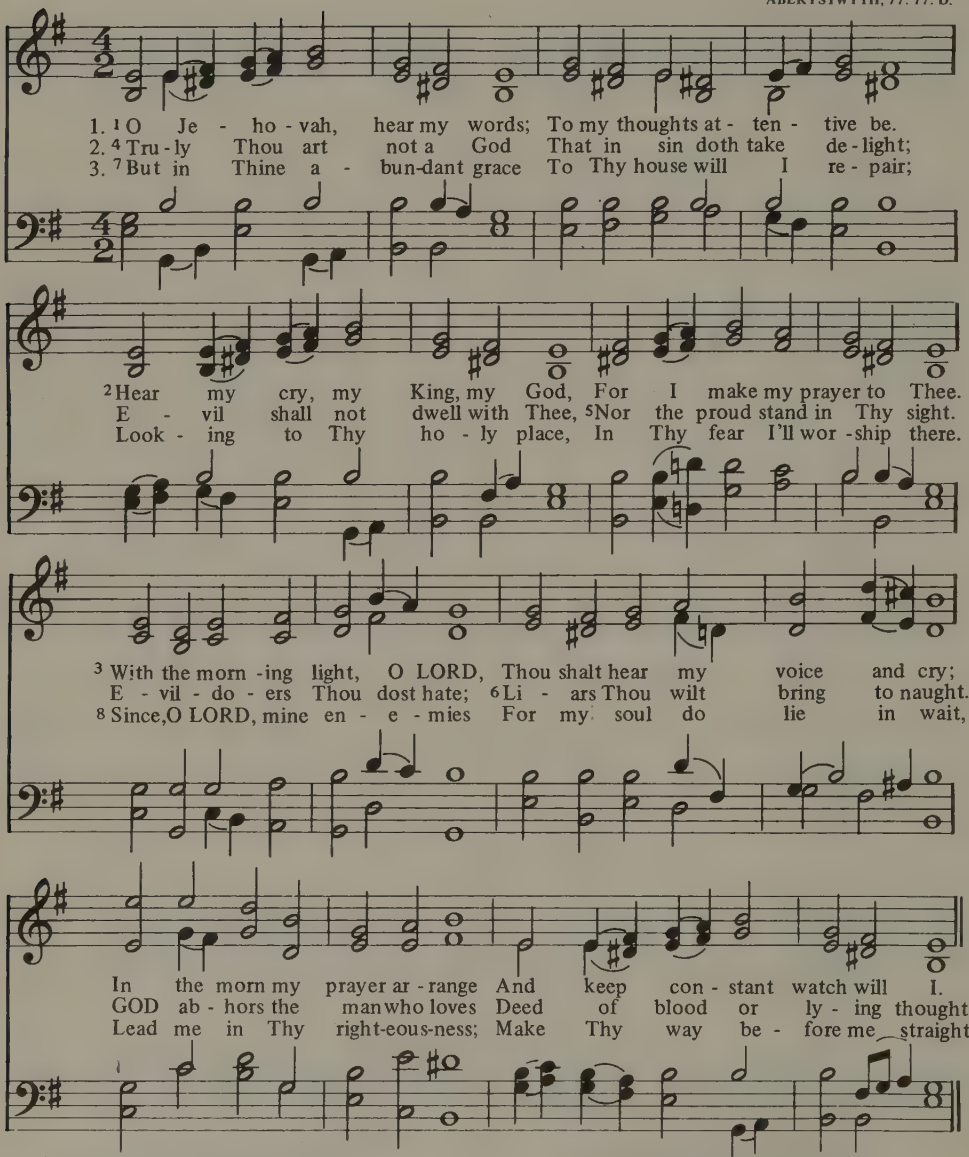

4. [9]For they flatter with their tongue;
In their mouth no truth is found;
Like an open grave their throat;
All their thoughts with sin abound.
[10]Hold them guilty, O my God;
Them for all their sins expel;
Let them fall by their own craft,
For against Thee they rebel.

5. [11]But let all that trust Thy care
Ever glad and joyful be;
Let them joy who love Thy name,
For they guarded are by Thee.
[12]And a blessing rich, O LORD,
To the righteous Thou wilt yield;
Thou wilt compass him about
With Thy favor as a shield.

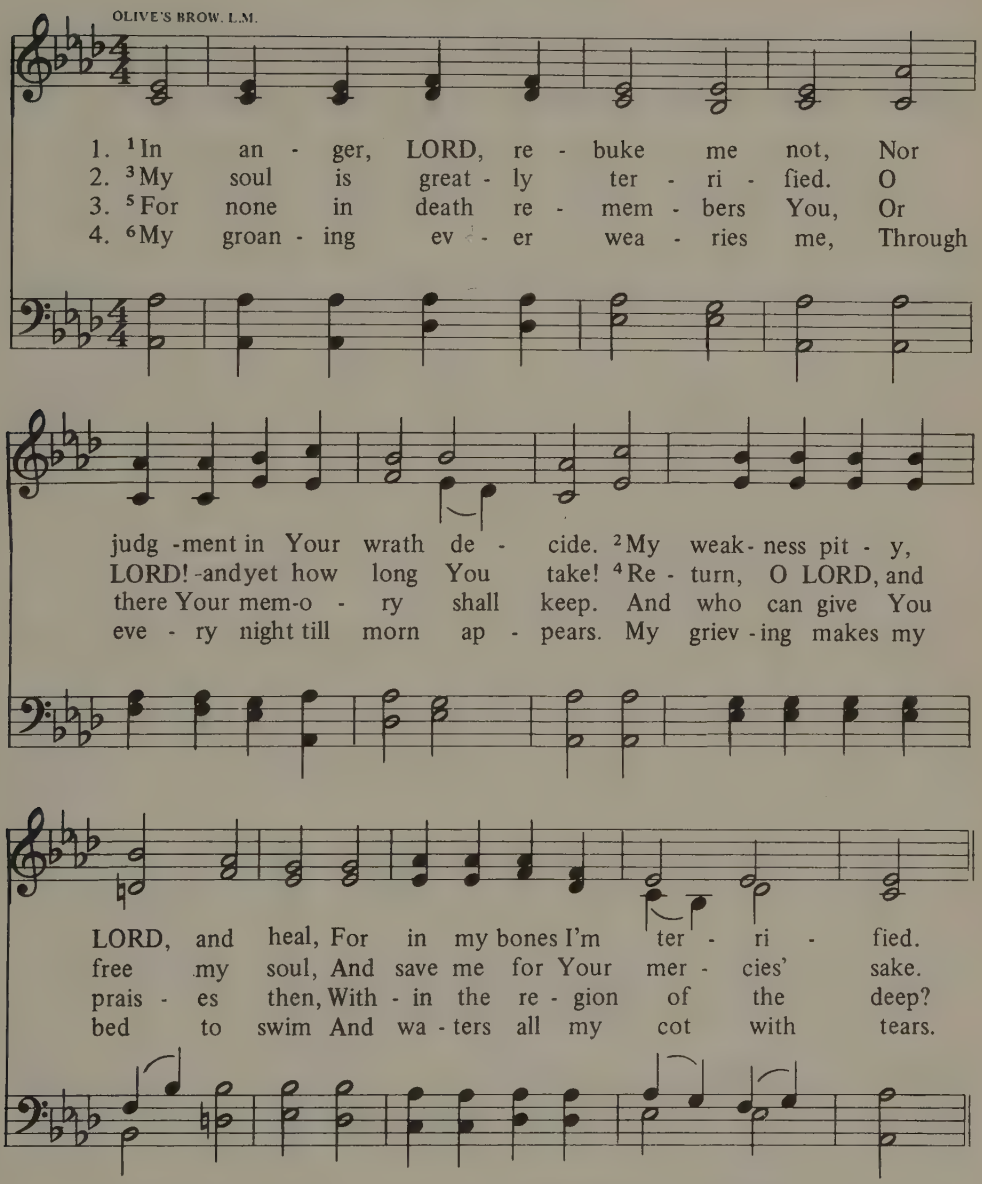

5B PSALM 5

ABERYSTWYTH, 77. 77. D.

4. 9 For they flatter with their tongue;
In their mouth no truth is found;
Like an open grave their throat;
All their thoughts with sin abound.
10 Hold them guilty, O my God;
Them for all their sins expel;
Let them fall by their own craft,
For against Thee they rebel.

5. 11 But let all that trust Thy care

Let them joy who love Thy name,
For they guarded are by Thee.
12 And a blessing rich, O LORD,
To the righteous Thou wilt yield;
Thou wilt compass him about
With Thy favor as a shield.

5. [7]Because of all my enemies
This bitter grief consumes my eyes.
[8]Then let all evil men depart!
The LORD has heard my weeping cries.

6. [9]The LORD my supplication hears;
The LORD has brought my prayers to mind;
[10]My foes shall be ashamed and vexed,
And sudden shame they all will find.

4. [4]O what is man, that Thou dost him
Within Thy thought retain?
Or what the son of man, that Thou
To visit him dost deign?

5. [5]For Thou a little lower hast
Him than the angels made;
A crown of glory and renown
Hast placed upon his head.

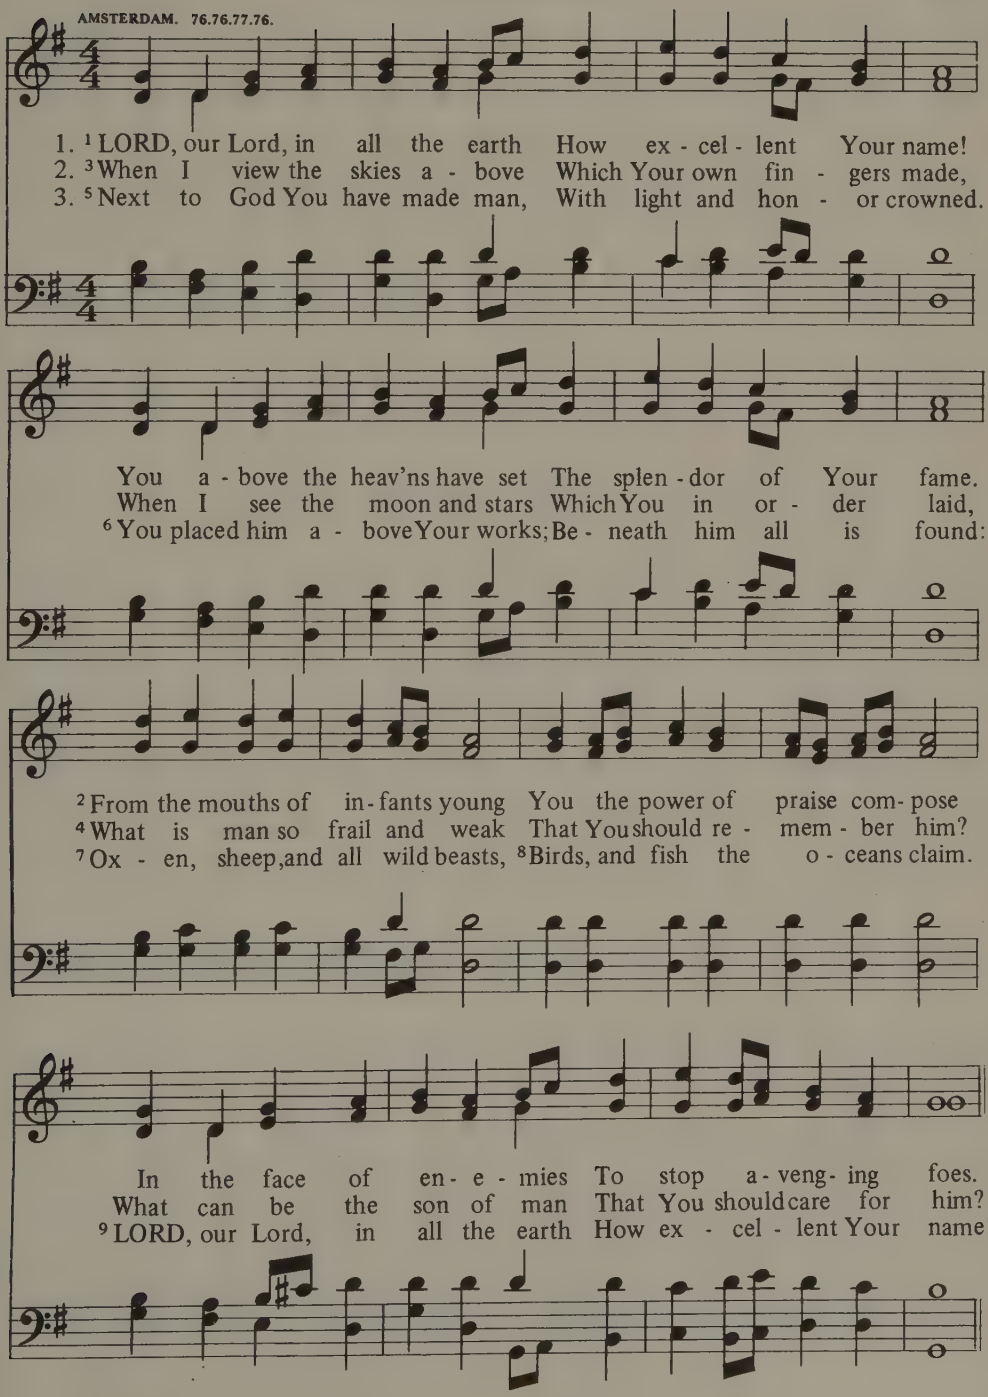

6. [6]Thou mad'st him lord of all Thy works;
Beneath him all things be:
[7]All flocks and herds, all beasts [8] and birds,
And fishes of the sea,

7. And whatsoever living thing
The paths of ocean claim.
[9]O LORD, our Lord, in all the earth
How excellent Thy name!

10A PSALM 10:1–11

PENITENTIA. 10.10.10.10.

5.
In stealth he watches for some hapless one.
[9]He like a lion crouches in his den.
He hides himself that he may seize the poor;
To seize the poor he traps him in his net.

6.
[10]The hapless one he crushes, tramples down,
When he has made him fall beneath his might.
[11]In heart he thinks, "God has forgotten this;
He hid His face, so He will never see."

SURSUM CORDA, 10.10.10.10.
7. 12A - rise, O LORD! O God, lift up Your hand!
8. 14You see! You note dis - or - der and dis - tress.
9. 15O break the wick - ed, e - vil - do - er's arm!

Seek out his wick - ed - ness till You find none.
Their heart You strength - en; You in - cline Your ear.

11 PSALM 11

OLMUTZ, S.M.

5. [6]Upon all wicked men
He'll rain entangling snares.
Brimstone and fire and burning wind
He for their cup prepares.

6. [7]For righteous is the LORD,
And He loves righteousness;
And every one who upright is
Will see His gracious face.

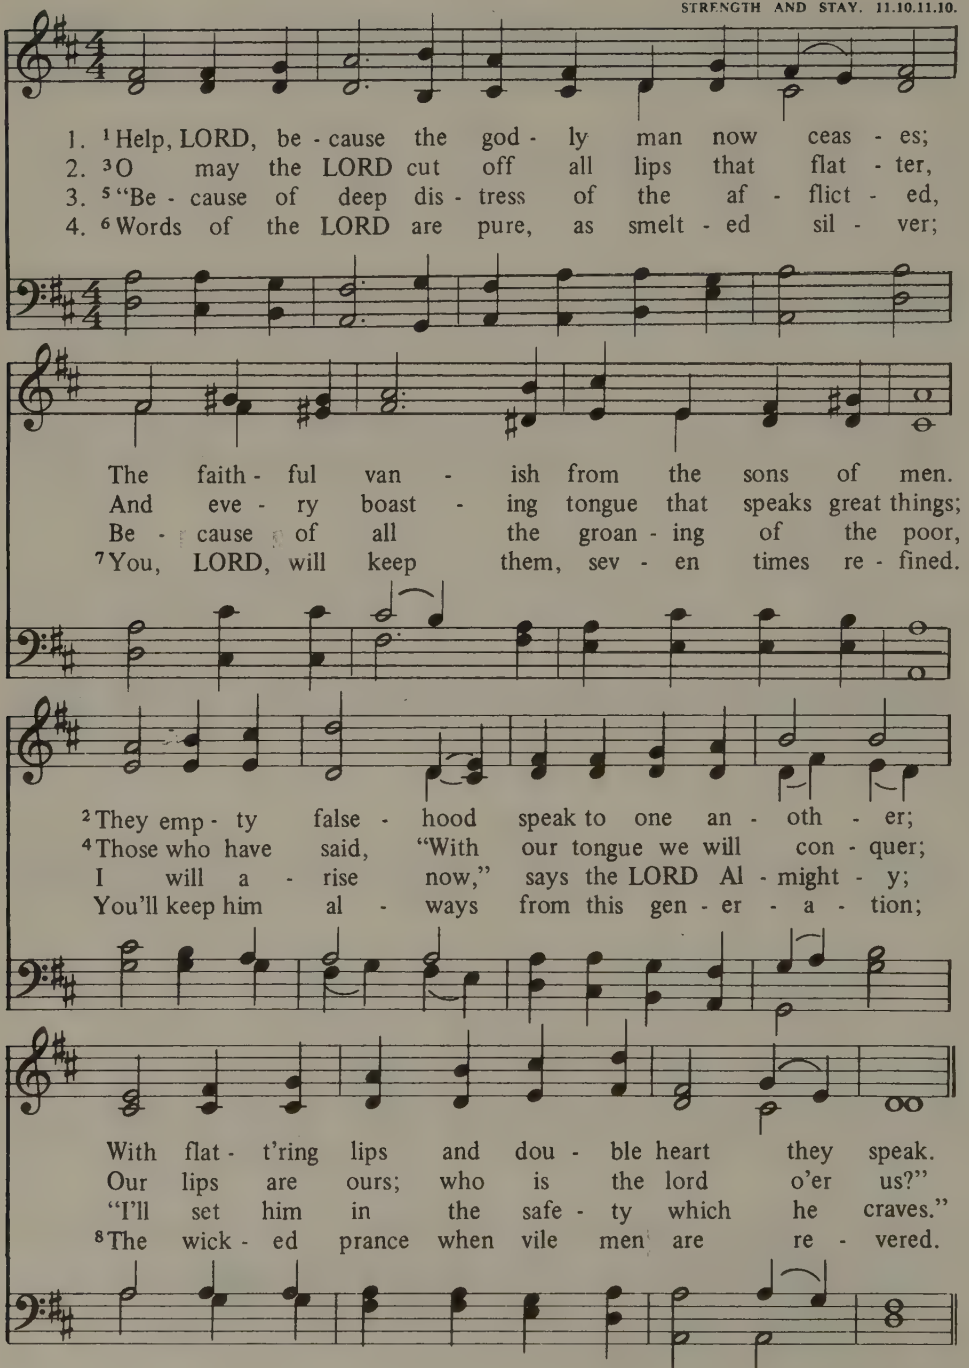

5.[6]Jehovah's words are words most pure;
They are like silver tried
In earthen furnace, seven times
That has been purified.

6.[7]LORD, Thou shalt them preserve and keep
For ever from this race.
[8]On every side the wicked walk,
With vile men high in place.

4. [6]But as for me, I am a worm
And not a man at all.
To men I am despised and base;
Their scornings on me fall.

5. [7]All those who look at me will laugh
And cast reproach at me.
Their mouths they open wide: they wag
Their heads in mockery.

6. [8]"The LORD was his reliance once;
Now see what God will send.
Yes, let God rise and set him free,
This man that was His friend."

7. [9]You took me from my mother's womb
To safety at the breast.
[10]Since birth when I was cast on You
In You, my God, I rest.

All those who seek will praise the LORD.
So let your hearts endure.

22E PSALM 22:27–31

The righteousness that is His own,
For none did this but He.

Because my foe oppresses me?"

5. [10]As if to shatter all my bones,

He, like beasts that perish, dies.

Though the world their sayings praise,

Death their shepherd there is made.

SAXONY. C.M.

The covenant which he had sworn
He broke at his own whim.

13. 21 Though smooth as butter was his speech,
Within his heart was war;
Though soft as oil the words he spoke,

Yes, He makes sure that still unmoved
The righteous shall remain.

59A PSALM 59:1-9

5. [6]At night they come; they snarl like dogs
That round the city stray.
[7]Their mouths stretch wide; their lips are swords:
"For who will hear?" they say.

6. [8]But Thou, O LORD, dost laugh at them;
Thou dost all nations mock.
[9]O Thou my Strength, I'll hold to Thee;
God is my fortress-rock.

10. 13 Destroy them in Thy wrath; destroy,
That they may be no more.
Make known that God in Jacob rules,
To earth's most distant shore.

11. 14 At night they come; they snarl like dogs
That round the city stray.
15 They search for food but are not filled,
And, hungry, there they stay.

12. 16 But of Thy strength I'll sing aloud,
At morn Thy mercy praise;
For Thou hast been my refuge high,
My fort in evil days.

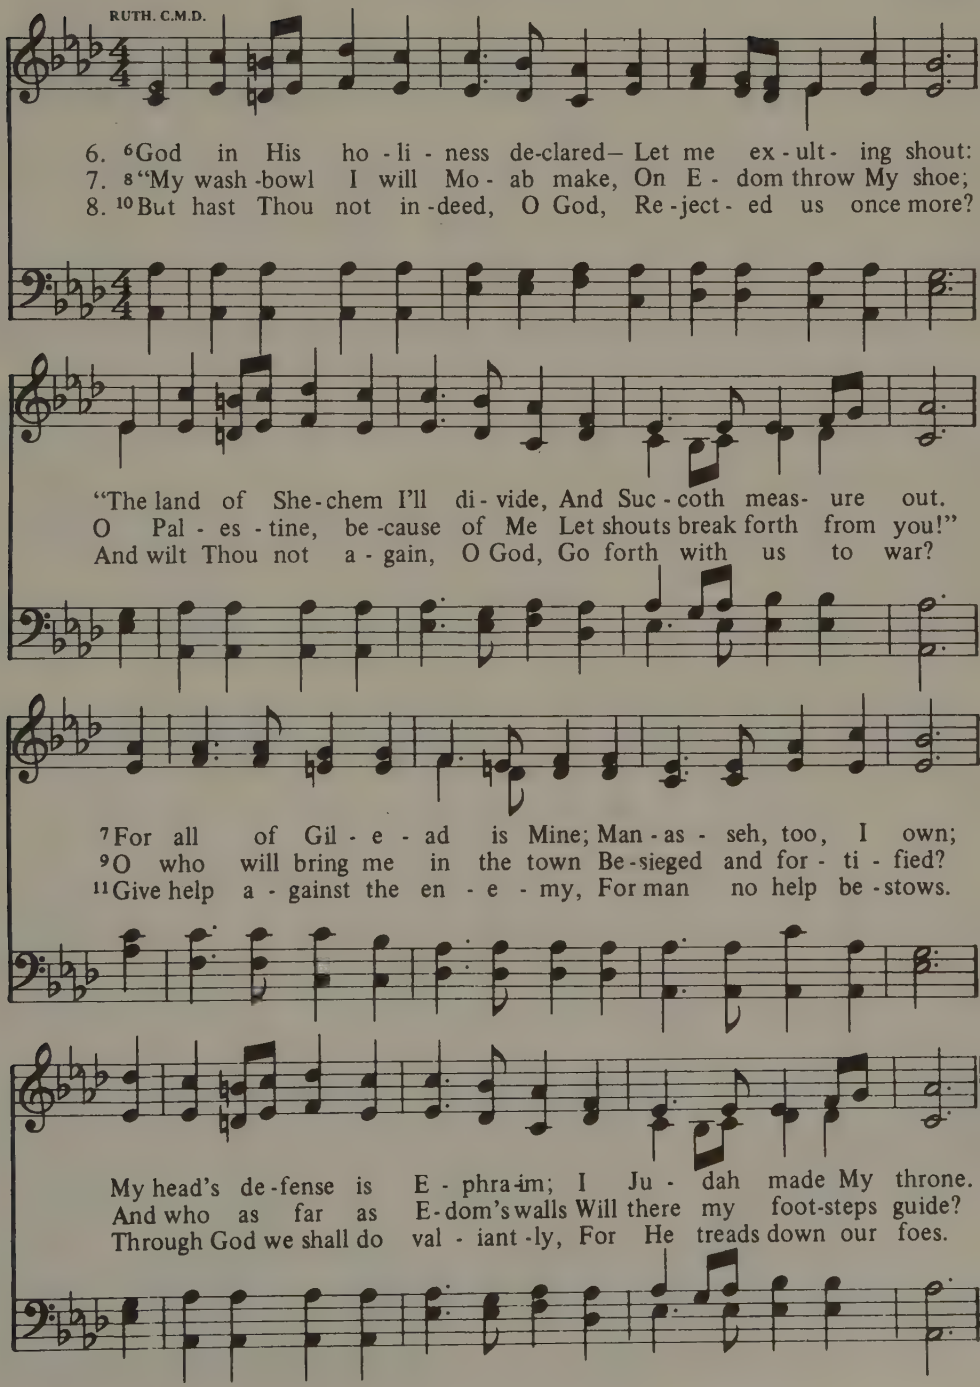

13. 17 O Thou Who art my strength, I will Sing praises unto Thee;
For God is my defense, the God
Of grace He is to me.

60A PSALM 60:1-5

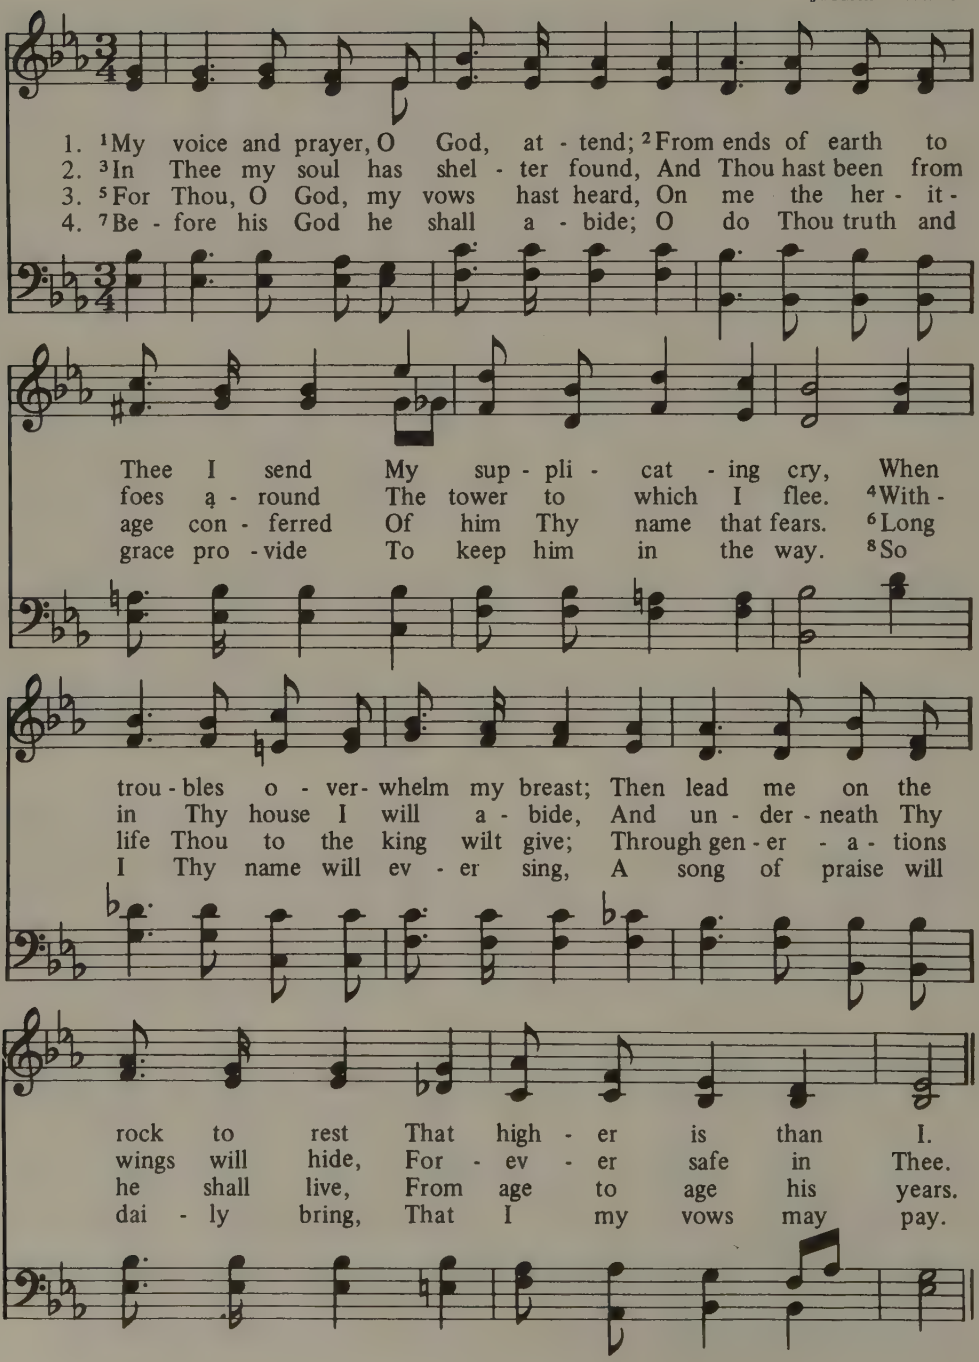

4. 4But those that fear Thee Thou didst give

In dealing with the sons of men
Most terrible is He.

5. [6]He turned the sea into dry land,
So they a pathway had;
They through the river went on foot;
There we in Him were glad.

6. [7]He ruleth ever by His might;
His eyes the nations try;
Let not the proud rebellious ones
Exalt themselves on high.

7. [8]O all ye people, bless our God;
Aloud proclaim His praise,
[9]Who holdeth safe our soul in life,
Our feet from sliding stays.

CLARENDON. C.M.

11. 15 Burnt sacrifice of fattened beasts
With smoke of rams I'll take,
And from the bullocks and the goats
To Thee an off'ring make.

12. 16 All ye that fear Him, come and hear
What God did for my soul;
17 I with my mouth have cried to Him;
My tongue did Him extol.

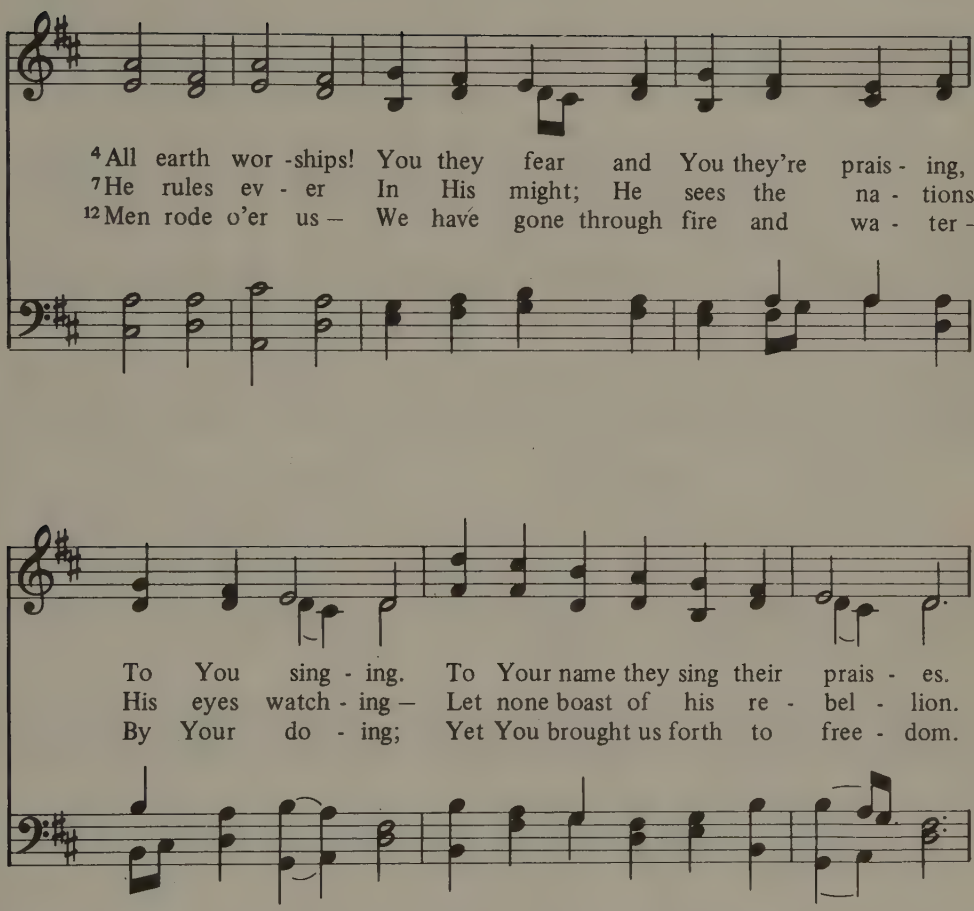

13. 18 If in my heart I sin regard,
The Lord will never hear;
19 But surely God has heard my voice;
He to my prayer gave ear.

14. 20 Forever blessed be our God;
My prayer He has not spurned,
Nor has He ever yet from me
His lovingkindness turned.

66C PSALM 66

WIE SCHÖN LEUCHTET. 887.887.48.48.

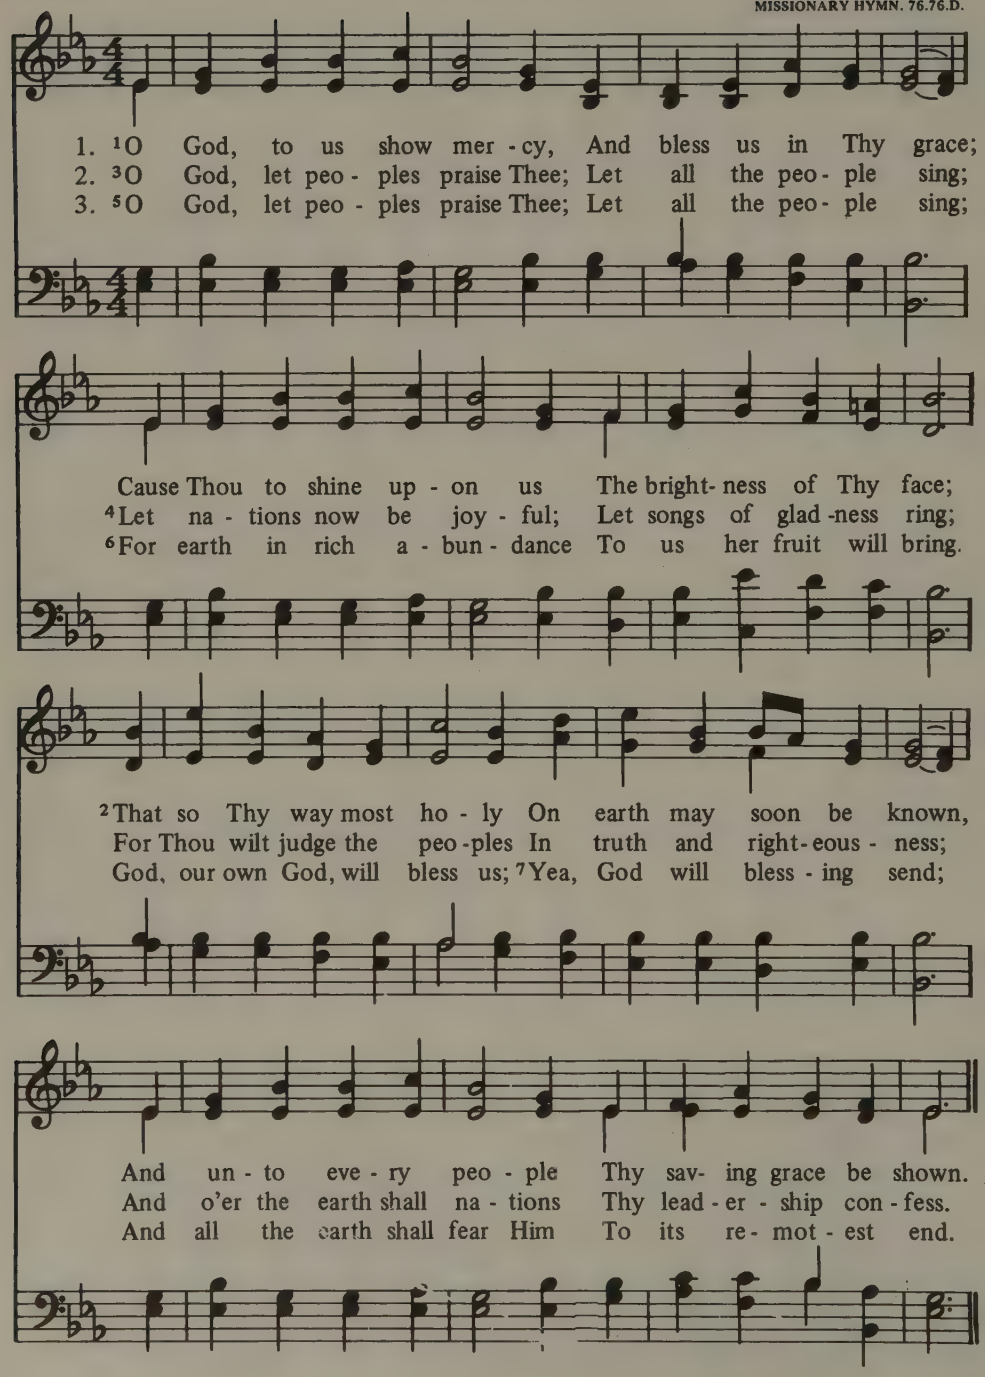

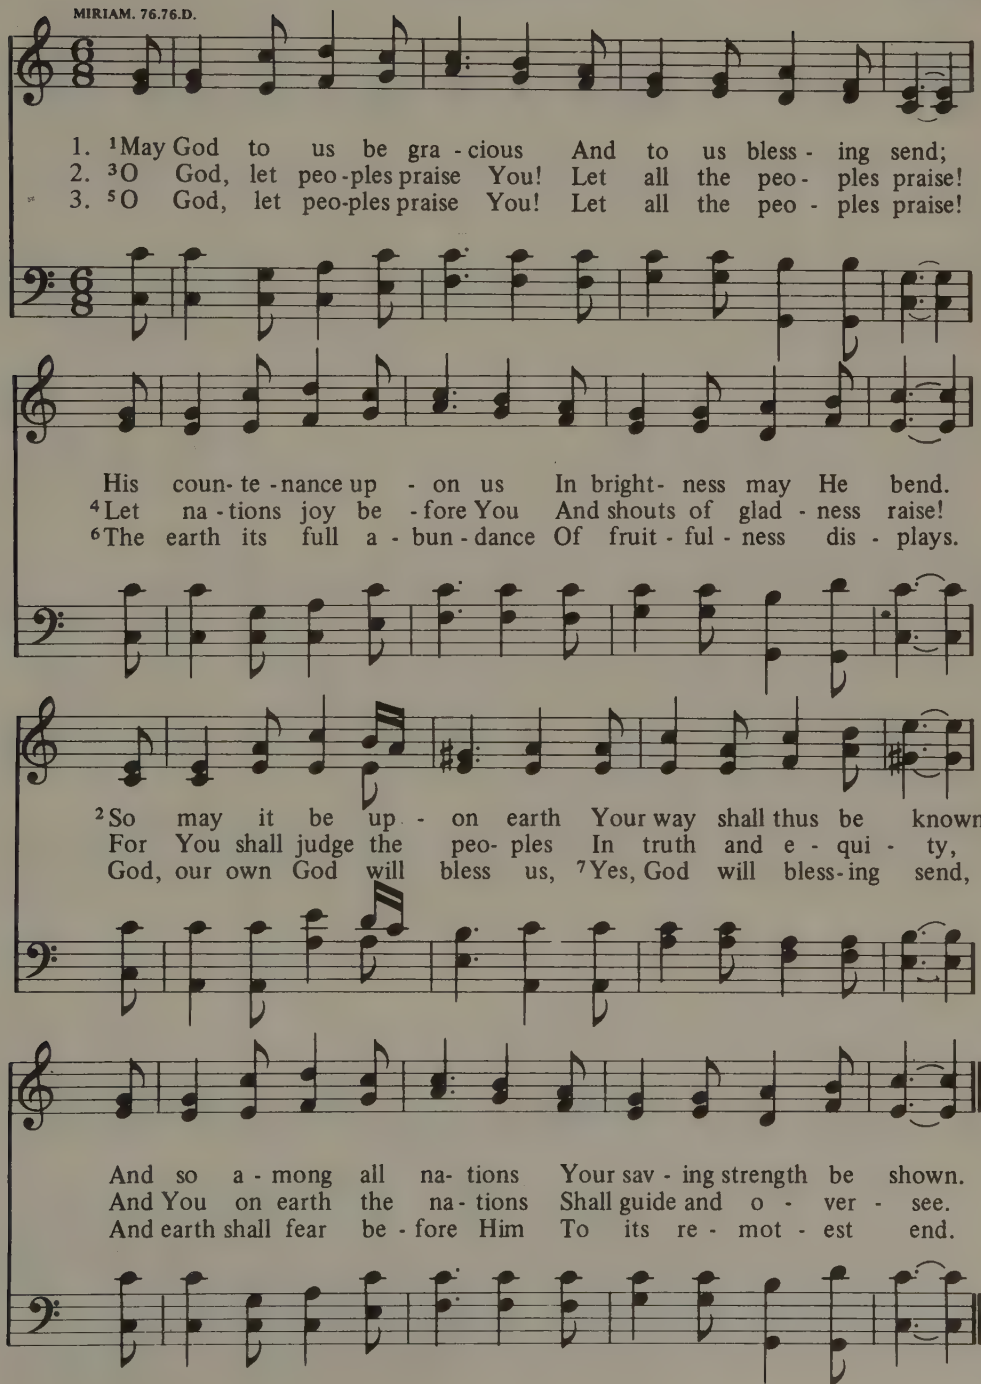

4. [13] I enter will into Your house;
I'll bring burnt offerings with me;
To You I will my vows pay.
[14] These things my lips and mouth resolved:
I promised many offerings
When I was in deep trouble.
[15] I will offer
Burning sacrifice of fatlings,
With ram's incense;
I'll make bulls and goats an off'ring.

5. [16] Come listen, all who fear the LORD;
I'll tell what He has done for me:
[17] I cried to Him and praised Him.
[18] If in my heart I sin regard
The LORD will not give heed to me;
[19] But truly God has listened;
He has heard me.
[20] God be blessed, for He has not
Scorned my praying;
He took not His mercy from me.

ELLACOMBE. C.M.D.

12. 26 In heav'n He made the east wind blow;
The south wind felt His hand;
27 So He rained meat on them like dust,
Winged fowl like ocean's sand.
28 He let them fall amid their camp,
By tents on every side.
29 And so they ate till they were filled;
Their greed He satisfied.

13. 30 They craved still more, mouths filled with food;
31 God's wrath then on them fell
And killed their stout ones, and subdued
Choice men of Israel.
32 Yet still they sinned; they disbelieved

They all did turn aside.

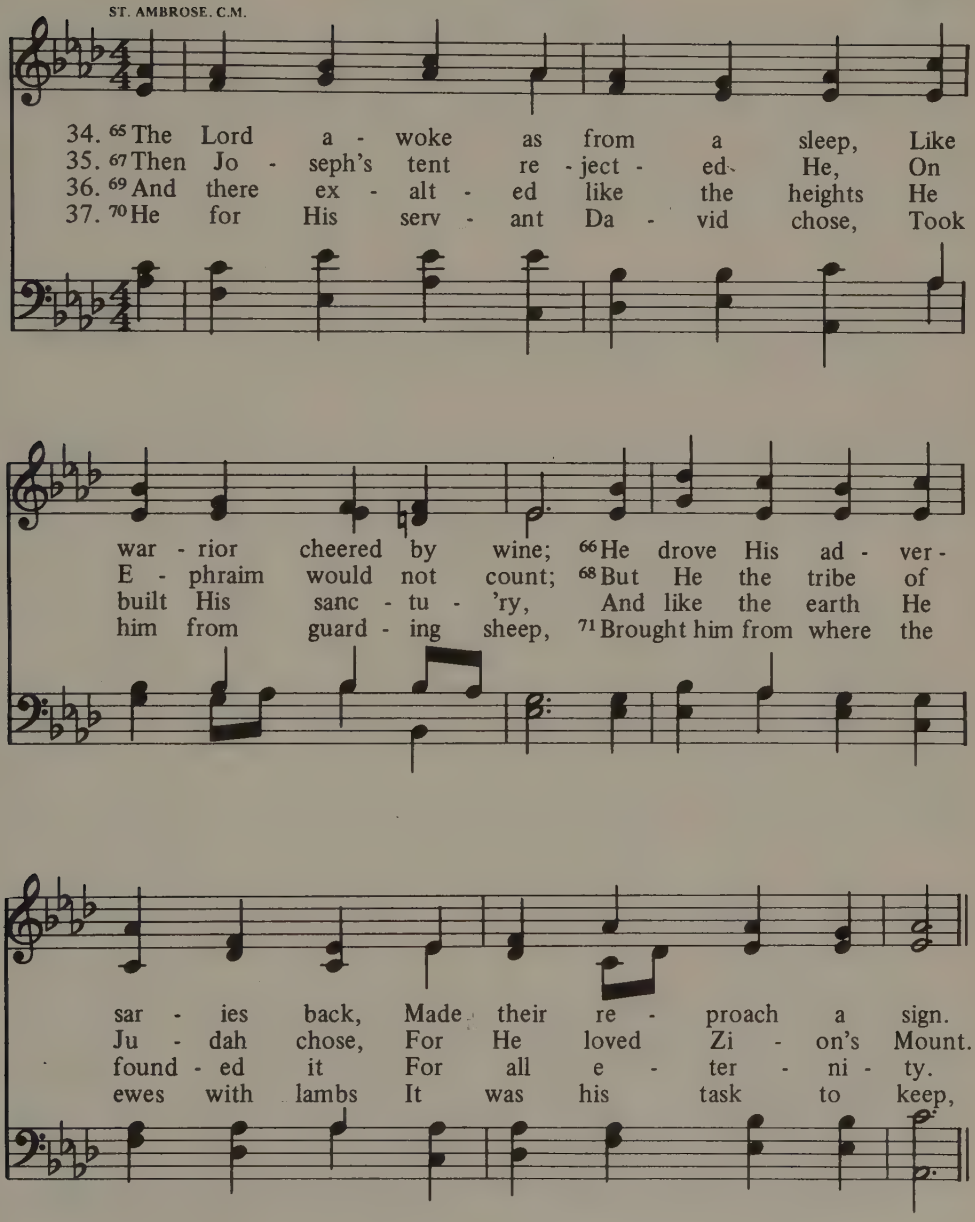

78G PSALM 78:58-64

32. 62 And He His people to the sword

No tears their widows shed.

HOLY CROSS. 86.84

4. [4]To all our neighbors we've become
A scorn and a reproach,
A laughingstock to all who now
On us encroach.

5. [5]How long, O LORD? Thy wrath toward us
Wilt Thou forever turn?
And will Thy fire-like jealousy
Forever burn?

6. [6]On heathen kingdoms pour Thy wrath,
Who call not on Thy name,
[7]For Jacob they devour, and waste
His fields with flame.

7. [8]Remember not our fathers' sins,
Which guilt on us bestow.
Let Thy compassion soon meet us,
Brought very low.

FAIR HAVEN. 86.84.

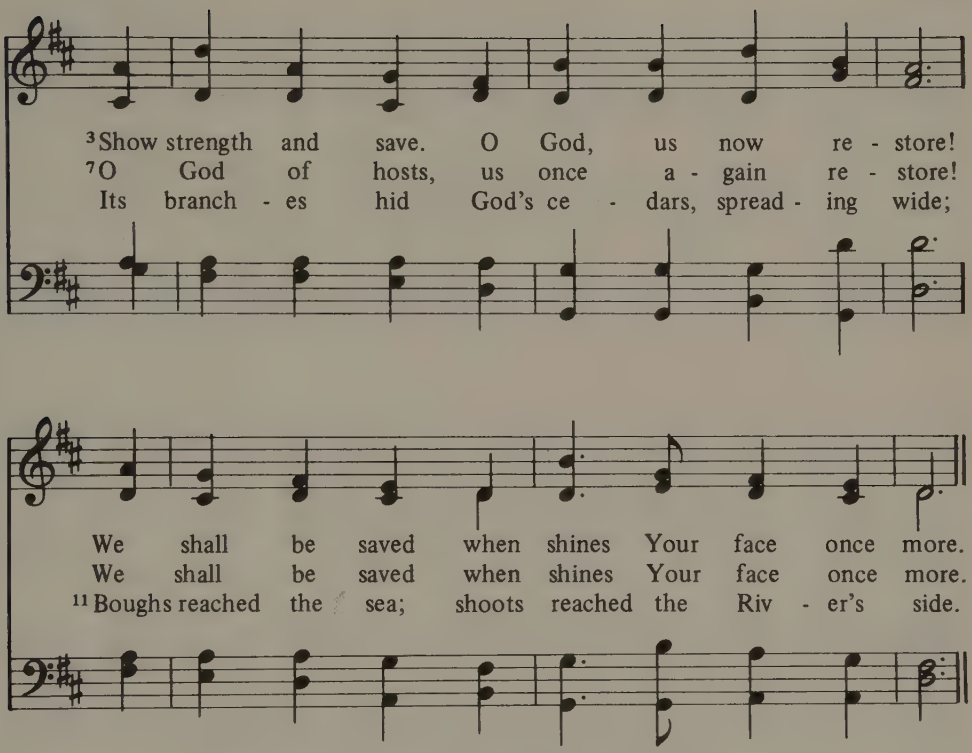

11. 12 And to our neighbors' bosom turn,
In sevenfold reward,
All their reproach which they have cast
On Thee, O Lord.

Forever thank Thy name;
And to all generations we
Thy praise proclaim.

UNDE ET MEMORES. 10.10.10.10.10.10.

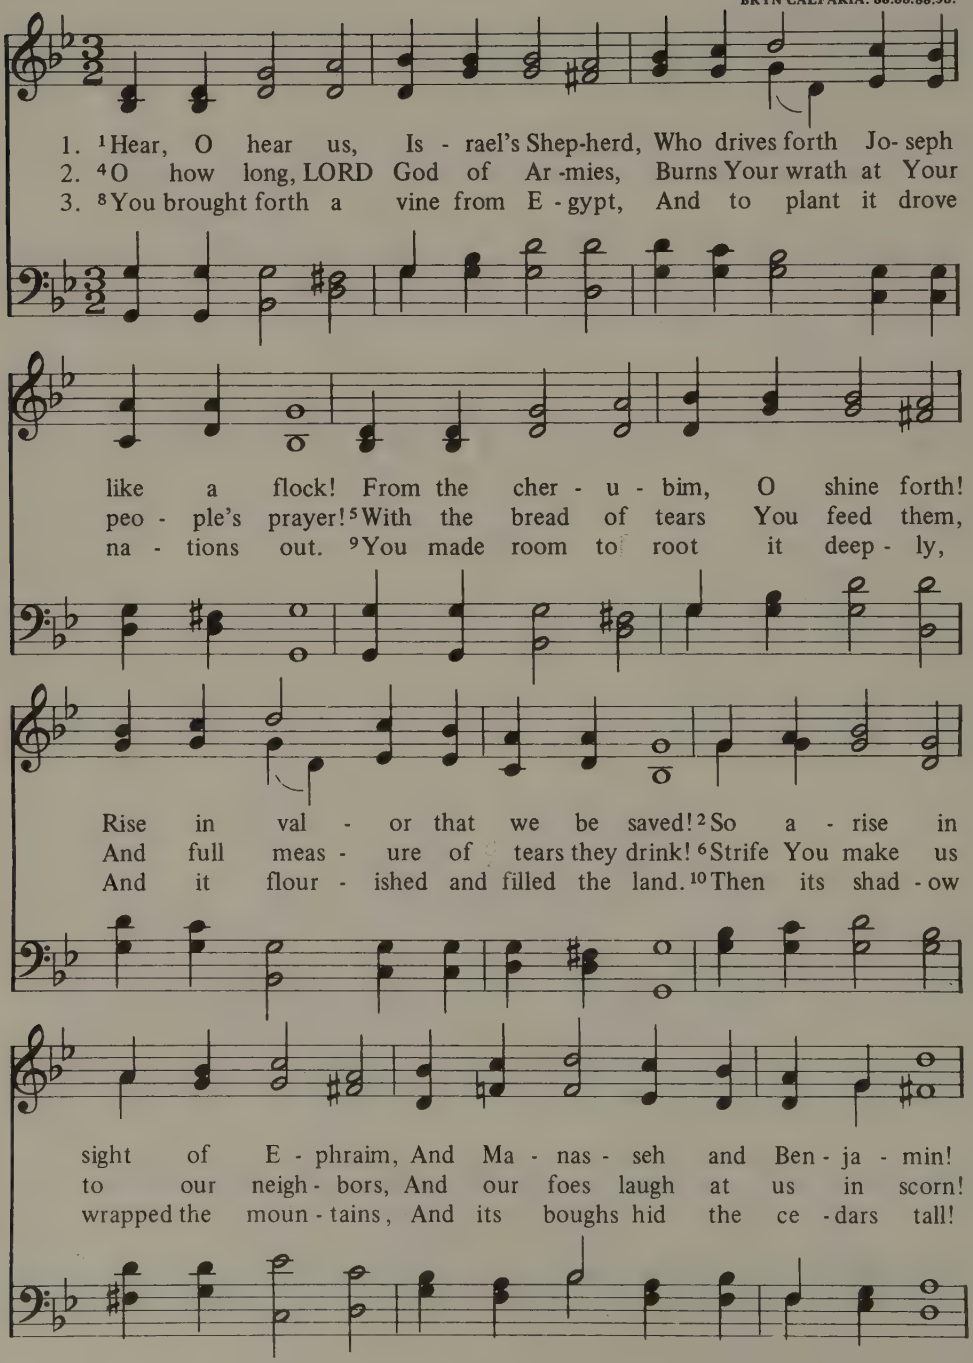

4. [12]Why have You broken down its circling wall,
That all may pluck who pass along the way?
[13]The boar from out the woods roots round it all;
The untamed beasts devour it as they stray.
[14]O God of hosts, return to us, we pray!
Look down from heaven and behold this day!

5. O visit and protect this vine of Yours,
[15]The root You planted with Your own right hand,
This son whom You have strengthened for Yourself.
[16]Burned up with fire, Your people cannot stand.
They are cut down; they perish when You look,
Because with Your appearance comes rebuke.

6. [17]Your hand be on the man of Your right hand,
The son of man You've strengthened for Your own.
[18]Then we shall never turn away from You.
Revive us! We will call Your name alone.
[19]LORD God of hosts, us once again restore!
We shall be saved when shines Your face once more.

14 Turn again, O God of Armies!
Look from heav'n! Visit this Your vine!
15 So uphold what Your right hand did plant,
And the son You raised up in strength!

5. 16 It is burned and hewn in pieces –
By Your frown will they be destroyed!
17 Lay Your hand on him You favored,
Son of man that You raised in strength!
18 Then from You we will not wander;
Make us live! We will call Your name!
19 O LORD God of Armies, turn us back!
Make Your face shine, and we are saved!

PSALM 90:1–12

MARTYRDOM. C.M.

4. [4] Because a thousand years appear
No more before Thy sight
Than yesterday when it is past,
Or than a watch by night.

5. [5] As with an overflowing flood
Thou sweepest them away;
They are as sleep, and as the grass
That grows at morn are they.

6. [6] At morn it flourishes and grows,
Cut down at eve doth fade.
[7] For by Thine anger we're consumed;
Thy wrath makes us afraid.

7. [8] All our iniquities Thou dost
Before Thy presence place,
And set our secret faults before
The brightness of Thy face.

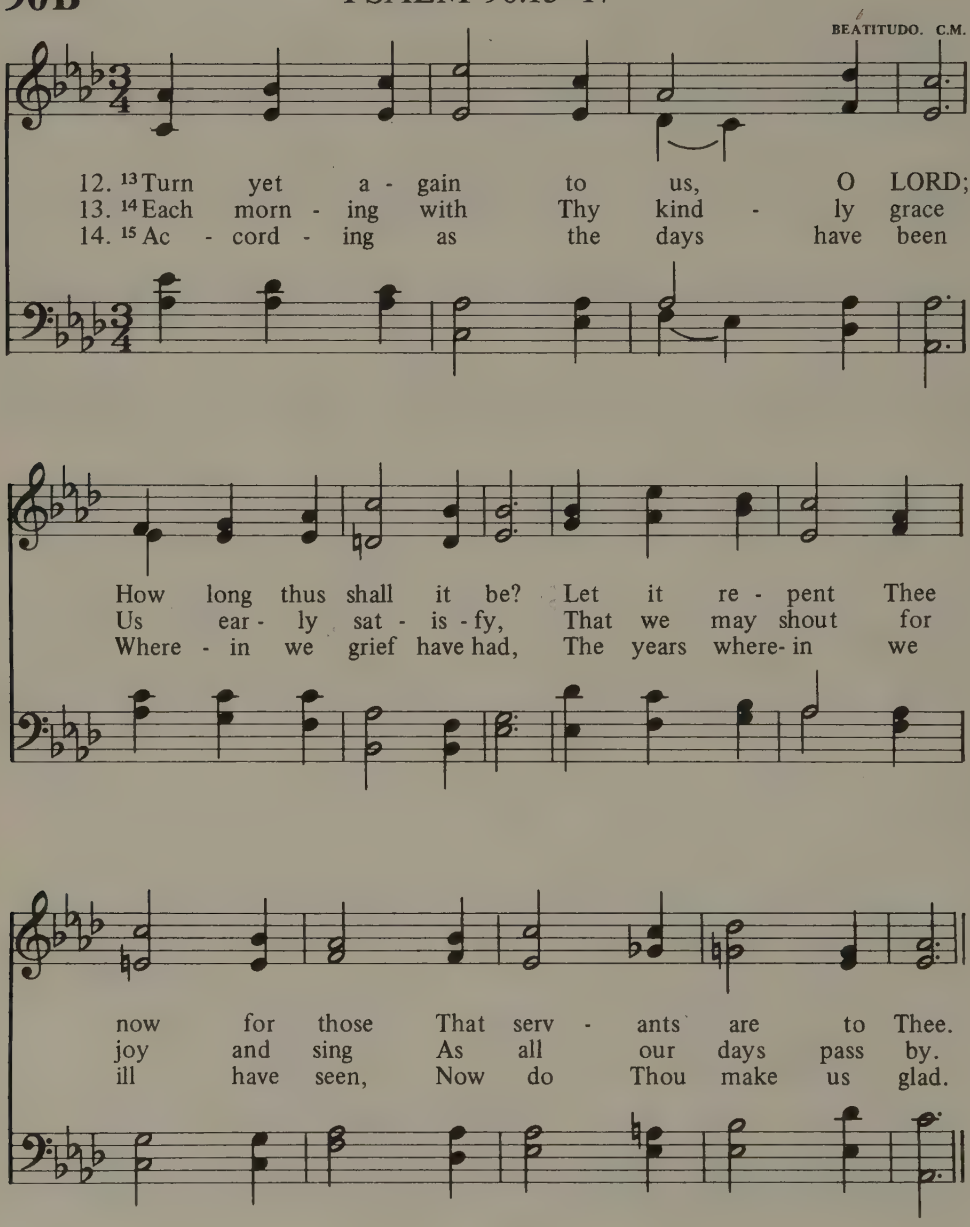

8. [9] For in Thine anger all our days
Pass onward to an end;
And as a tale that has been told
So all our years we spend.

9. [10] Threescore and ten years are the sum
Of all the days we see;
Or if by reason of more strength
In some fourscore they be;

10. Their pride is grief and vanity,
Soon gone; we've flown away.
[11] Who knows the power of all Thy wrath
And fears Thy fury's sway?

11. [12] O teach Thou us to think upon
And number all our days,
That we may bring to Thee a heart
Confirmed in wisdom's ways.

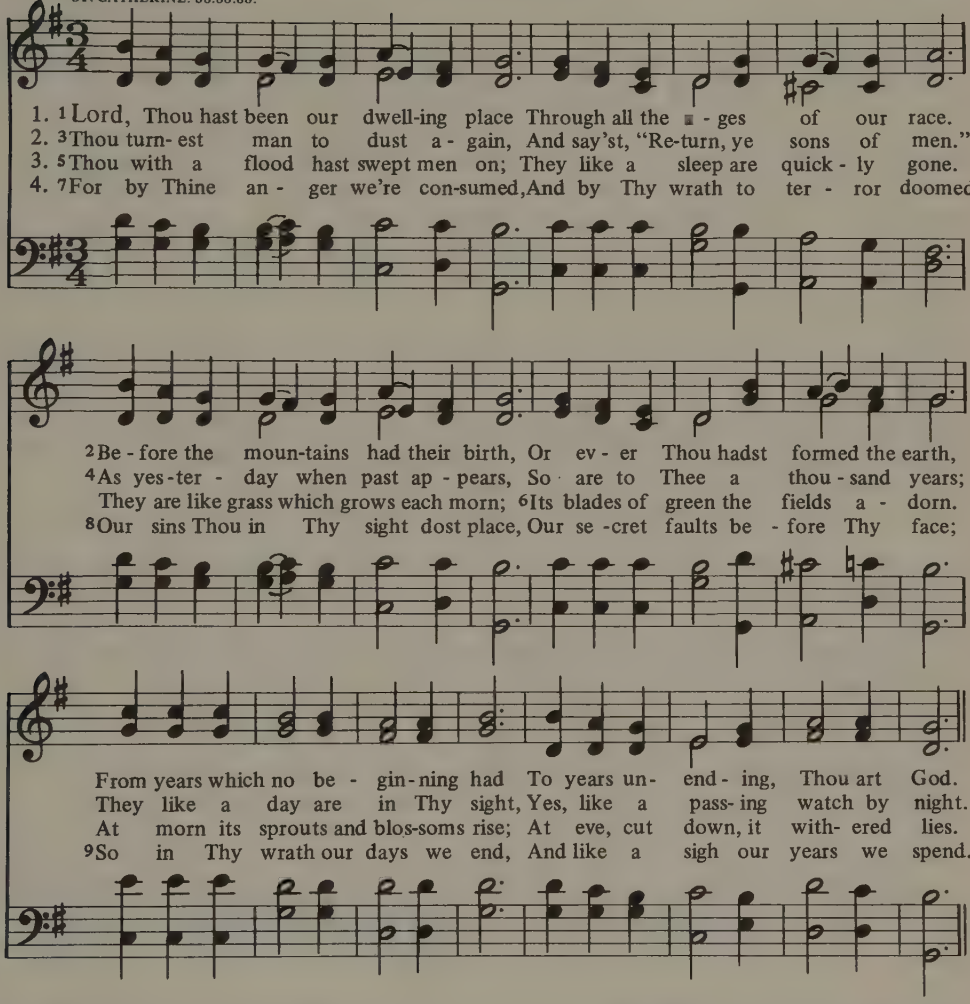

90B PSALM 90:13–17

15. 16 Thy work unto Thy servants done
Again make them to see,
And let Thy majesty and power
Upon their children be.

16. 17 So let the beauty of the LORD
Our God upon us rest.
Our handiworks establish Thou;
Our work by Thee be blest.

ST. CATHERINE. 88.88.88.

5. 10For some life's years are seventy;
Perhaps the strong may eighty see;
Their best involves but toil and woe;
All quickly ends. How soon we go!
11Who has Thine anger understood?
Who fears Thy fury as he should?

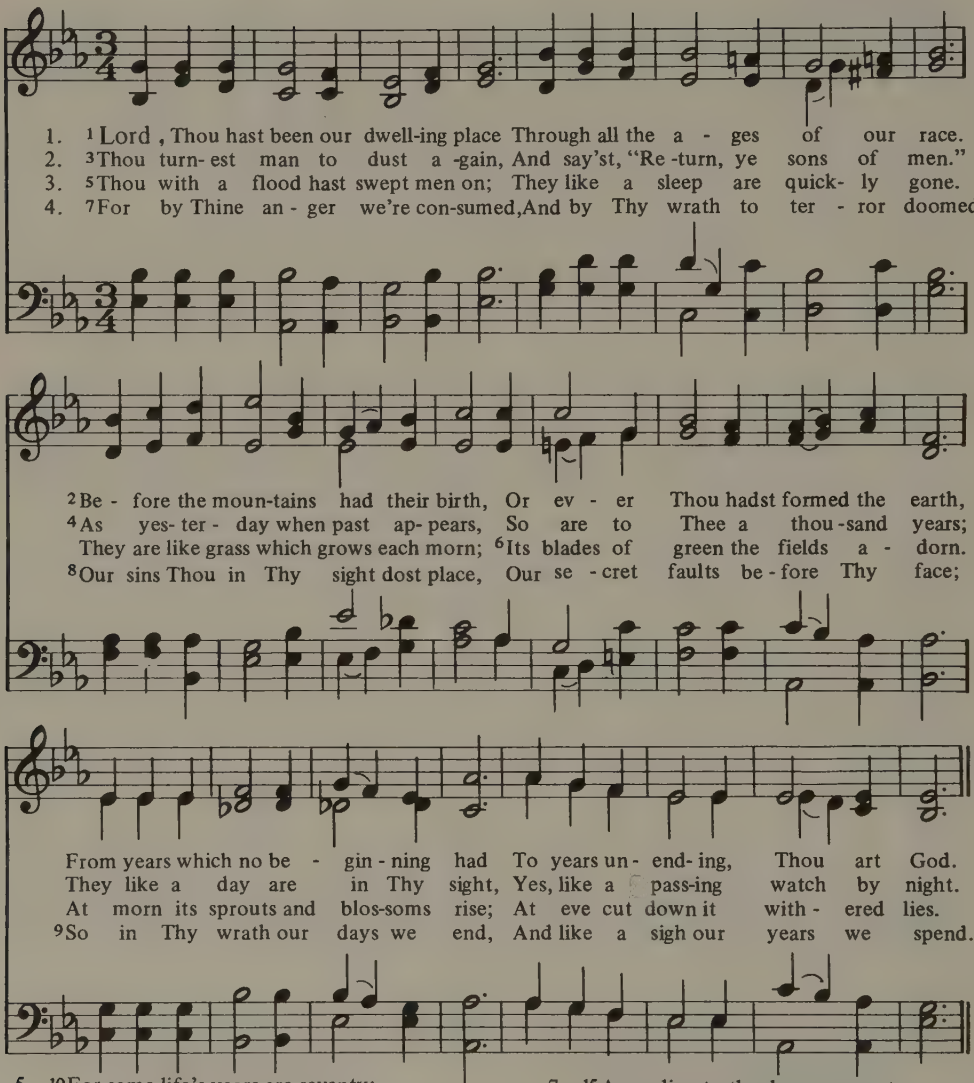

6. 12O teach Thou us to count our days
And set our hearts on wisdom's ways.
13How long, O LORD? Return! Repent,
And toward Thy servants now relent.
14Each morning fill us with Thy grace;
We'll sing for joy through all our days.

7. 15According to the days we spent
Beneath affliction Thou hast sent,
And all the years we evil knew,
Now make us glad, our joy renew.
16Thy work in all Thy servants show;
Thy glory on their sons bestow.

8. 17On us let there be shed abroad
The beauty of the LORD our God.
Our handiwork upon us be
Established evermore by Thee.
Yes, let our handiwork now be
Established evermore by Thee.

AN INTRODUCTION TO CHANTING

WHAT IS IT?

Chanting is the singing of a prose text to a simple, repeated melody. Good chanting is essentially good reading aloud; it uses the rhythms and stresses of natural speech.

The ancient Hebrews never used metrical "tunes" in the modern sense. In the synagogue, the Law, the Prophets, and the Writings (including the Psalms), were read in a sing-song recitation which was half speech, half song. Originally chanting involved only a single line (that is. no part-singing), and only two or three pitches. The early Christian church retained this practice, adapting it to the recitation of the Psalms in Latin translation. Our present system of chanting in four parts is called Anglican Chant, and dates from sixteenth-century England.

WHY DO IT?

Chanting has several advantages over metrical Psalmody, stemming from the fact that in chanting, the music completely serves the text. The music is not difficult or interesting in itself, but has character and meaning only in conjunction with words. The meaning of the text is thus more immediate, and the parallel structure of the Hebrew poetry is more apparent. The difficulties of translating ancient non-metrical poems into sensible English rhyme are rendered unnecessary. Chanting encourages the use of entire Psalms rather than selections.

HOW TO DO IT?

A single chant consists of two halves. Each half contains a Reciting-tone and an Inflection. The Inflection of the first half normally contains three notes; that of the second half, five.

Reciting tone — Inflection — Reciting tone — Inflection

The text of a Psalm which is "pointed" for chanting contains marks which correspond to the features of the chant. A vertical line / corresponds to the bar-lines of the Inflections, and a double line // to the double bar at the midpoint of the chant. If more than two syllables fall between bar-lines, the division of the syllables among the notes may be obvious (i.e., change notes for a new word, as in Psalm 19:1, "glory of"); or a dot · may indicate the point of change (Ps. 19:1, "firma·ment"). Be sure to give the syllables equal duration –  or  ,and NOT  or  .

Learning to chant a Psalm begins with reading the first verse aloud, with sensitivity and correct articulation. When the group reads this verse well, monotone it. Sing it through on a single pitch, one that is comfortable for all, with the same stress and meaning used in reading it. Breathe only at the end of each half-verse.

Third, sing the notes of the chant on a neutral syllable (such as LA or LOO), giving the notes equal duration.

Finally, when the notes are learned, sing the verse to the music of the chant. After the first verse is mastered, follow the same procedure with each succeeding verse: read, monotone, chant.

Some important details of chanting include:

1. The pace is the same throughout the chant. Do not rush through the Recitation and then slow the Inflection.

2. The bar-lines and note-values do not have their usual metric significance; their use is simply a matter of convenience and custom. Do not sing the Inflection as if it were in $\frac{2}{2}$ meter.

3. Feminine line endings (those in which the final syllable is unaccented) must be observed in singing. The temptation to accent such syllables must be resisted, as it produces a disagreeable "thump" and violates the principle of natural speech rhythm.

4. Each syllable must receive the same emphasis it has in reading, not more. Some chanters unnaturally prolong the last syllable before each Inflection and the last syllable of each half-verse, thus interrupting the textual rhythm of the Psalm.

FIRST AND FAMILIAR LINES

A people I knew not will serve 18F
A priest was Moses, Aaron, too 99B
A thousand ages to endure 105B
According to Thy word, O LORD 119I
Advancing still from strength to strength . . 84B
All earth to God raise joyful song! 66C
All ends of earth, rememb'ring Him 22I
All lands to God in joyful sounds 66A
All my iniquities blot out 51B
All nations have surrounded me 118B
All people that on earth do dwell 100A
All peoples, clap you hands for joy 47A
All this has come on us, yet we 44C
All ye that fear Him, come and hear 66B
And in old age when others fade 92B
"And now, O Lord, what wait I longer for? . 39B
Answer when I call, O God Who justifies . . .4B
Arise, O LORD. Confront my foe 17C
Arise, O LORD! O God, lift up Your hand! . 10B
As herds of bulls that roam the wild. 22G
As in its thirst the panting hart 42A
As the LORD has thought of us 115D
At all times I will bless the LORD 34A
At Meribah they angered Him 106E
Attend Thou and answer; Jehovah, give ear .86A

Be gracious unto me, O God 56,57A
Be not far off, for grief is near 22C
Be still and know that I am God 46AB
Be Thou exalted far 108A
Because He comes, He surely comes. 98A
Because His angels He commands 91D
Because of this my heart is glad 16A
Because of You I overcome a troop 18J
Because the fountain filled with life 36B
Because the king trusts in the LORD 21B
Because thy home is God Most High 91C
Before Thee let my cry come near. . . . 119WX
Behold, how good a thing it is 133AB
Bless the LORD, all servants of the LORD. 134B
Bless the LORD, my soul; my whole heart. 103A
Blessed be the LORD forever 89I
Blessed be the LORD, my Rock 144C
Blessed be the LORD, the God of
Israel 41C,72D,106G
Blessed the man that fears Jehovah 128B
But as for me, afflicted, poor. 69E
But His own people forth like sheep. . . . 78F
But I with lasting confidence 71C
But in a time accepted, LORD 69C
"But if his sons forsake My law 89F
But let all that trust Thy care 5AB
But now Thou hast rejected us. 44B
But Thine anointed Thou hast spurned . . .89G
But to the wicked man 50C
But when He killed them, they desired . . .78D
But You have forsaken, to shame brought our boasts 44E
But You, Jehovah, shall endure 102B
But You, O LORD, be merciful 41B
By Babel's streams we sat and wept 137
By Your name, O God, now save me 54B

Cast thou thy burden on the LORD 55C
Clap your hands, all ye people 47B
Come, let us sing unto the LORD 95C

Defend me, God, and plead my case. 43
Do not be silent, God, or unresponding. . . 83C
Do not reject me in the time 71B
Do Thou in bounty deal with me 119C

Encompass Zion, count her towers 48B
Except the LORD build the house. 127B
Except the LORD shall build the house. . 127A

Fainteth my soul for Thy precious salvation 119K
False witnesses against me stood 35C
Far as east from west is distant 103B
Food Jehovah gives the hungry 146AB
For behold He surely cometh 98B
For evermore in heav'n, O LORD 119L
For God is King of all the earth 47A
For he thought not to show mercy. 109B
For our frame He well remembers 103C
For the king in the strength of the LORD
ever nigh 21D
For the LORD has sworn to David 132B
For Thou, O God, hast tested us 66B
For trespass and iniquity 107C
Forever O may the LORD's glory stand. . 104E
Forever will the Lord cast off 77B
From heav'n O praise the LORD. 148
From lion's mouth and oxen's horns 22D
From men of greed and violence. 140A
From my sins hide Thou Thy face. 51E
From out the depths, O LORD, I call to Thee. 130B

Give ear to this my prayer, O God 55A
Give ear to what is right, O LORD 17A
Give Thou an answer when I call. 4A
God, be merciful to me 51D
God in His holiness declared 60B
God is in His congregation 82
God is our refuge and our strength . . . 46ABC
God makes Himself be known in Judah. . . 76B
God, my Praise, O be not silent! 109A
God of vengeance, O Jehovah 94A
God spoke in holiness 108B
God the Lord is known in Judah. 76A
God, Thee, my God, I'll early seek. 63A
God's surely good to Israel 73A
Grant not, O LORD, that wicked men . . 140B
Great is Jehovah, and His praise 48A

Hallelujah! Praise Jehovah 146AB
Hallelujah! Praise the LORD's name! . . 135AB
Hasten, O God, to my rescue! 70C
Have no disturbing thoughts about 37A
He changes streams to wilderness 107E
He counts the number of the stars. 147A
He gave them to the nations' power 106F
He has the power of His works. 111B
He led His people forth enriched 105E
He made known His ways to Moses 103B
He made the nations' counsel vain. 33B
He put a new song in my mouth 40AB
He reached from heav'n and rescued me 18C
He rescued me from my strong enemies. . . 18I
Hear my voice, O God, in my complaint . . .64B
Hear, O hear us, Israel's Shepherd 80B

Hear, O My people! Israel 81B
Hear this, all ye peoples, hear 49A
Hear Thou my voice, O God, when I 64A
He'll hide me, covered, in His tent. 27B
Help, LORD, because the godly man now ceases 12B
How amiable are Thy tabernacles 84C
How blessed all who fear the LORD. . . . 128A
How blessed the man who does not walk . . .1B
How blessed the man who guides the poor .41A
How blessed the upright in the way 119A
How fervently I love You, LORD, my Strength! 18G
How great the good Thou hast reserved. . .31D
How long, LORD, wilt Thou hide Thyself? 89H
How long wilt Thou forget me, LORD?. . . .13
How lovely, LORD of hosts, to me 84A
How many works, LORD, in wisdom You've made 104D
How oft rebelled they in the wilds 78E
How shall a young man cleanse his way? . 119B

I am very poor and needy. 109C
I chased and overtook my enemies 18K
I cried in trouble to the LORD. 120
I cried with my heart; O Jehovah, give ear 119T
I cry to You, O LORD, my Rock 28A
I have been young, now many years. 37D
I hid not in my heart 40F
I joyed when to Jehovah's house 122A
I love the LORD because He heard 116A
I love the LORD because He hears my pleading. 116C
I love You, LORD! You are my strength . .18A
I now will give whole-hearted thanks to the LORD 9A
I saw the wicked, ruthless man 37F
I shall not die, but live and tell. 118C
I still believed, although I said 116B
"I to Jehovah will confess 32A
I to the hills will lift my eyes. 121AB
I to Thy hand with confidence. 31A
I waited for the LORD 40E
I waited long upon the LORD 40AB
I was glad to hear them saying 122B
I will both lay me down in peace 4A
I will not with dissemblers go. 26A
"I will take heed and guard my ways," I said 39A
I will Thee praise, my God, O King 145A
If I the wings of morning take 139B
If we have forgotten the name of our God . 44F
I'll call on God; the LORD will save. 55C
I'll hear what God the LORD will speak . . 85B
I'll in Thy steadfast love rejoice 31B
In all His lovingkindness great 59B
In anger, LORD, rebuke me not 6
In beautiful and holy robes. 96B
